Dr. Carla Webb has been practicing endodontics since 2003. She grew up in McComb, Mississippi and attended Millsaps College in Jackson, MS where she lettered in women's basketball all four years. During her time at Millsaps, she received the Southern Collegiate Athletic Conference Player of the Year Award and All-American honors. After college, Dr. Webb pursued and completed her dental degree at the University of Mississippi School of Dentistry where she was inducted into the national dental honor society, Omicron Kappa Upsilon, and was the recipient of the Association of Endodontists Award, the Oral and Maxillofacial Pathology Award, the WaterPik Prosthodontic Award, and the AmSouth Bank Scholarship for academic achievement. She then attended Tufts University School of Dental Medicine in Boston, Massachusetts earning her certificate in endodontics.

After owning and operating a successful, state of the art practice in Flowood, Mississippi for 13 years, Dr. Webb relocated to Florida in 2016. On July 9, 2018, Dr. Webb purchased the practice of Dr. Hans Salheiser, with whom she shares a common philosophy and vision. She is very happy to continue the tradition set by Dr. Salheiser, providing personal, quality treatment combining precision and comfort.

Dr. Webb is a board-certified endodontist who spends many hours each year networking with colleagues and participating in continuing education activities to remain current in her field.

She is a member of the American Association of Endodontists, the American Dental Association, the American College of Dentists, and the American Association of Women Dentists as well as a Diplomate of the American Board of Endodontics. She was a founding member of the Mississippi Association of Women Dentists and is a Past President of the University of Mississippi School of Dentistry Alumni Association.

Dr. Webb is married with two young children. When she is not taking care of patients, she enjoys playing with her kids, experiencing the many natural resources Florida has to offer, and seeking new adventures with her family.
